event - Timeless Portraits and Dreams: A Festival/Symposium in Honor of Geri Allen.
Organized by musicians Vijay Iyer, Ingrid Monson, Terri Lyne Carrington, and Esperanza Spaulding, and the Jazz Research Initiative of the Hutchins Center for African & African American Research, the Hutchins Center for African & African American Research and the Music Department at Harvard University.

Timeless Portraits and Dreams:

The contribution to jazz music by Geri Allen is ASTONSHING! Click here to read a story about her work and experience the mastery of her playing technique in videos recorded at Guggenheim Museum.

We attended a live jam session with Terry Lynne Carrington on drums and Esperanza Spaulding on upright based synchronized to poetry, film and media by Carrie Mae Weems who read from her work. Vijan Iyer sprinkled piano music on background. The room was full. Professor Henry Louis (Skip) Gates was in the room and enjoying it.
